Recorded weather information for Alaska

1-855-937-4977

weather.gov/arh/awil

Updated: December, 2023

The National Weather Service Alaska Region established the Alaska Weather Information Line as a public service, providing toll-free telephone access to weather information throughout the state.

The following forecasts are available through the Alaska Weather Information Line:

1. Public Forecasts: 7-day forecasts with information for communities in Alaska.

2. Marine Forecasts: 5-day forecasts for coastal marine areas

The menu system is organized according to the following geographical areas:

Northern Alaska	Southwestern Alaska
Southcentral Alaska	Southeastern Alaska

Additional information, including warnings, statements, forecasts, observations and climate information are available at weather.gov/alaska.
